

Exterior Painting

All exterior painting must match, as closely as possible, the original color of the home. This standard applies to the primary (base) color, as well as the secondary (trim) color of the home. Any deviation from this standard must be approved in writing prior to the application of the paint, stain or coating.